

Hunton & Williams Recognized in 2007 Chambers Asia

Bangkok -- 15 October 2007 -- Hunton & Williams LLP is pleased to announce it was recognized in the inaugural edition of Chambers Asia and Pacific Region 2007, a guide to the region's well-regarded legal practitioners, as identified by clients and attorney peers. In addition to being ranked in the areas of Banking & Finance, Corporate/M&A, Projects and Restructuring/Insolvency, five partners from the Asia offices were named as 'Leaders in their Field.' These include:

- Stephen John Bennett - Corporate/M&A (Thailand)
- James P. Bradley - Projects (Thailand)
- Edward B. Koehler - Projects (Thailand)
- Edmund W. Sim - International Trade: Singapore (Pan-Asia)
- Surasak Vajasit - Banking & Finance; Restructuring & Insolvency (Thailand)

"We congratulate our lawyers," stated Edward B. Koehler, managing partner of the firm's Asia-Pacific offices. "It is always an honor to receive this type of recognition and especially gratifying to know they were selected by clients and peers."

About Hunton & Williams

Hunton & Williams provides legal services to corporations, financial institutions, governments and individuals, as well as to a broad array of other entities. Since our establishment more than a century ago, Hunton & Williams has grown to more than 975 attorneys serving clients in 100 countries from 19 offices around the world. While our practice has a strong industry focus on energy, financial services and life sciences, the depth and breadth of our experience extends to more than 100 separate practice areas, including bankruptcy and creditors rights, commercial litigation, corporate transactions and securities law, intellectual property, international and government relations, regulatory law, products liability, and privacy and information management.