Fourth Annual Pipeline Legal Issues & Policy Roundtable

July 27-28, 2006 • Loews Hotel • Annapolis, Maryland

This year's conference will expand last year's dialogue on issues relating to the expansion of the oil & gas pipeline infrastructure in the United States with panel discussions on legislative, regulatory, economic and legal solutions. Panelists and speakers will include additional government officials and industry leaders. FERC Chairman Joe Kelliher is already slated to speak at this unique event.

See the back of this card for information about hotel accommodations. Additional details about registration will follow. If you have questions, please contact Ashley Vance at (404) 888-4230 or avance@hunton.com.
